You’ve Got a Story!

You’re a story-teller: the new restaurant you tried last weekend; the unexpected work you had done on your car; the big house project you’ve been talking about for years and finally started. With your friends and family, you’re already talking about these things all the time.

But how often do we find ourselves talking about what God is doing and showing us? Let’s face it, it’s easy to talk about the weather and the Broncos. But our daily conversations with each other could be different and deeper if we were to consider two hurdles to cross in order to experience spiritual breakthrough in our everyday lives.

One reason God may seem distant in our day-to-day lives is that we have been looking in the wrong place. He’s not just working in the lives of super-spiritual people or in dramatic moments. He’s working every day in the lives of ordinary people. Consider these ordinary moments: a particular line from your morning devotion that seemed to jump off the page (UP with God); a rich conversation with a close friend or family member (IN with others); a step of courage to serve a stranger (OUT with the would).

Another reason God may seem silent is because of the pace of our lives. Most of us frantically move through a stacked schedule each day. Cultivating a habit of mindful reflection seems like a large task in the midst of family and work, commitments and errands, leaving us little time to ourselves. Consider an evening prayer with a few moments of reflection, prompted by the question, “God, what did you do or show me today?” Filtered through a three-dimensional life (UP, IN, OUT), the insights and stories have poured in from people to whom I’ve posed this simple question.

I’ve discovered three simple steps to begin to live into a new way of knowing and sharing the things God is doing in my ordinary life:

1. Reflect – Take intentional time to consider the extraordinary things God is doing and showing you in the ordinary moments of your life
2. Listen – Listen for stories in others
3. Share – with others at oflc.net/stories

As we celebrate 1000 stories of extraordinary life this year at Our Father, we’d love to hear your story. Chances are, you have more than one. Check out oflc.net/stories to share your story and hear more from others just like you.

20 Missional Communities by 2022

Missional Communities are an essential part of our vision as highlighted during the Arise! presentations. But what exactly is a Missional Community (MC)? Simply put, an MC is a group of 15-40 people forming an extended family on mission together. What do we mean by family? The Greek word for household in the New Testament is oikos, or extended family. But unlike today, an oikos (household) in the early church included grandpas and grandmas, aunts and uncles, but also business associates and neighbors. An intergenerational and non-nuclear extended family! As the early church grew, it capitalized on these network of relationships by planting churches within the oikos...that’s right, the very first churches started in peoples homes.

As these house churches engaged in acts of worship (UP), shared meals together (IN), and cared for the poor and vulnerable in their cities (OUT), their oikos (extended family) grew quickly and more small churches were planted across the middle east, Africa, and Europe. As a result, in just 300 years time, the small and scared groups of believers who had met together shortly after Jesus' death (John 20:19), became the dominant religion of the Roman Empire.

More important then the growth of the church however, was the change that came in people's hearts as the result of coming to a saving faith in Christ. The poor were fed, the sick were healed, and individual relationships between husbands and wives, and parents and children were restored. In other words, lives were forever changed as the result of the Gospel.

As we seek to reclaim the oikos of the past, by meeting the spiritual needs of the present, Missional Communities will play an important part in that transformation. We hope MC’s will become "many small churches within a large one," with a balanced rhythm of UP-IN-OUT, and where God’s people can together meet the spiritual and physical needs of the local communities.

Where are we now?

As of right now, there are two pilot Missional Communities at OFLC. The pilots were designed as a "learning lab" of sorts, where we could learn to live as an extended family on mission. God willing, we will launch two new missional communities in the fall of 2016, one in Highlands Ranch and one in Aurora. In addition, this fall, we will be providing training and resources for congregational members who are excited about the prospect of one day being in a missional community in their local community.
New Mortgage Payment

The Finance Committee requested that Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF) re-amortized our monthly mortgage payment. After paying down the mortgage principle to $2.3 million, the new monthly mortgage payment was reduced by $2,887 with a new lower interest rate of 3.625%.

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you.

We will make beautiful gifts for our moms and early Father’s Day gifts for our dads.

Graduation for our four and five-year olds will be on May 17th and 18th. Family picnics will be held for everyone! These will be our final days of school.

We send a special thank you to all the church staff for their wonderful chapels every week. We learned so much about Jesus!

We feel so blessed to have been a part of all these little lives this year. We wish you all a wonderful summer and will be anxious to return in September for another fun year!

Financial News

Financial Summary Through March 31, 2017

For the first quarter, our General Offerings are running 3.9% below budget by $13,036 and are $10,143 or 3.1% lower than 2016 actual. Last year, Easter fell in March increasing the monthly offerings for 2016. Our 10% benevolence expenditures were less during first quarter due to the lower General Offerings. Property expenses were also lower than budgeted because limited snow removal was required during this quarter.

All other income and expense budget variances are reasonable for early in the budget year.

Thank You, God, for Heather Richey and her work with the worship folders and projection plans and all the time spent getting it just right!

Thank You, God, for our Acolytes, Altar Guild teams, Assisting Ministers, Healing Ministers, Scripture Readers, Sound and Projection personnel, Ushers, and Worship Arts team who helped lead us in worship, ministered to our spirits, shared God's Word, enabled us to see and hear, greeted us with a friendly greeting, and decorated our worship space so beautifully.

Thank You, God, for the members of the Adult Choir, Jubilate Ringers, Celebration Ringers, instrumentalists, soloists, and organists, who offered their gift of music to fill our souls with joy and prepare our hearts to hear Your Word.

Thank You, Lord, for such faithful servants to lead in worship and bless our time with the gifts with which you've blessed them! Amen!

In His service, Matt Hoehne

To Our Father Lutheran Church Family,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank so many members of this wonderful congregation for all their prayers, love and support that was given me and our entire family during Howard’s hospitalization and his eventual passing. You will never know how much it meant to be surrounded by so much love. This journey was certainly one I was unprepared to travel, but it was made easier because I felt so much support from the ministers and members of the Our Father’s church family. The many beautiful cards and heartfelt sentiments were a real comfort for our family. Howard loved this congregation and nothing would have pleased him more than to know that you honored him with gifts to the church he cared so deeply about! As I face the days ahead I am comforted knowing the Lord is with me and that he says to all of us, “He who believes in ME will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die.”

Thank you,
ArVie Doerr and the entire Doerr family.

Our Easter Thank You

It's hard to believe that Holy Week has come and gone! It seems like just yesterday we were singing Silent Night!

The old saying "many hands make light work" is certainly true – many hands have worked to prepare and create the worship services you have experienced over the last several months and I'd like to ask you to join me in thanking God for them and their willingness to serve:

Thank You, God, for Heather Richey and her work with the worship folders and projection plans and all the time spent getting it just right!

Thank You, God, for our Acolytes, Altar Guild teams, Assisting Ministers, Healing Ministers, Scripture Readers, Sound and Projection personnel, Ushers, and Worship Arts team who helped lead us in worship, ministered to our spirits, shared God's Word, enabled us to see and hear, greeted us with a friendly greeting, and decorated our worship space so beautifully.
