Our Values: Invitation and Challenge

Who is the best teacher you ever had? The best leader? The best mentor? No matter if you're thinking about a teacher, a coach, a pastor, a parent, a youth-group leader, or some other guide in your life, chances are that the person who sprung to mind when you read those first three questions did two key things: First, he or she brought you into their life in some significant way, and second they encouraged you to strive for something greater. To put it another way, the best teachers, leaders and mentors both invite us and challenge us. Both are necessary to truly help us grow. This is true for music teachers, volleyball coaches, dance instructors, and head chefs, and it's also true for people who disciple others to become followers of Jesus.

At Our Father this important value guides how we help one another grow as individual Christians. Furthermore, it also serves to help us understand the type of culture we are striving to become. Consider the following matrix:

People are used to experiencing cultures that are either highly invitational or highly challenging, but typically they do not experience them together. Invitation refers to an attitude that says, "I'm glad you are here, I'm committed to you and will welcome you no matter what." Challenge refers to an attitude that says, "I want you to grow, I'm committed to holding you accountable to change for the better."

When Jesus chose His Twelve Disciples He invited them into His life in a very special way, and also challenged them to live their lives for so much more. As we begin another new year, we continue to follow the model of Christ, striving to do all we can to encourage an empowered, discipleship culture at Our Father. If you are new, we want you to know you are invited to join us in our mission of helping ordinary people know and share extraordinary life in Christ!

To God alone be all the glory!
Pastor Abel

Christmas Program

The Big, Big Story is Jesus!

On Sunday, December 10, approximately 75 of our preschool through 6th grade Sunday School students presented the Christmas musical The Big, Big Story by Cathy Skogen-Soldner. The main characters, reporters for the Denver Post, relayed the biblical story of Jesus' birth as the choir shared the message of peace, hope, and love sent from God above. What a blessing the presentation was to our congregation! Thank you to our program directors, costume team, teachers, and superintendents who helped prepare the children. A big thanks to the participants for their hard work, practice, and enthusiasm. Remember, God is always with us!

Community News

MOSAIC

A big thank you to all of the OFLC members who volunteered to help make the FACES/ Mosaic Christmas party on December 10 a huge success! This party for developmentally disabled adults from our community is always a highly anticipated event. The party includes a presentation of the Christmas Story by these special guests in the Sanctuary, yummy desserts and Santa Claus handing out gifts and entertaining everyone. Thank you to everyone from Our Father who generously provided the gifts that go a long way in making Christmas special for these individuals. A special thank you goes to Becky Gambardella, Micah Steiner and Linda Olsen for their hard work and time.

SOAR

SOAR Seminar for active adults will be held February 10, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 2100 Wadsworth Blvd, Lakewood, CO. The theme is "Enhancing One's Quality of Life". Our keynote speaker is Pastor Drew Ross who will speak to us about Delivering Dignity to the Homeless Community, a ministry at Bethlehem in Lakewood. This outreach ministry provides a meal and worship service at Bethlehem and also showers with its mobile shower trailer. The Golden Brass from the University of Northern Colorado will be providing a brass quintet for entertainment. Details regarding fees and a schedule for the day are available by calling Harriet Oehlkersat 303-619-7839 or Stan Moeller at 303-665-4289.

Thank You

Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe that December has come and gone! It seems like just yesterday we were singing Silent Night. Did you know that almost 2000 people worshipped at OFLC between Christmas Eve and Christmas Day – wow!

The old saying "many hands make light work" is certainly true – many hands have worked to prepare and create the worship services you have experienced and I'd like to ask you to join me in thanking God for them and their willingness to serve:

Thank You, God, for Heather Richey and her work with the worship folders and projection plans and all the time spent getting it just right.

Thank You, God, for our Acolytes, Altar Guild teams, Assisting Ministers, Healing Ministers, Scripture Readers, Sound and Projection personnel, Ushers, and Worship Arts team who helped lead us in worship, ministered to our spirits, shared God's Word, greeted us with a friendly greeting and decorated our worship space so beautifully.

Thank You, God, for the members of the Adult Choir, Jubilate Ringers, Celebration Ringers, instrumentalists, soloists, and organists, who offered their gift of music to fill our souls with joy and prepare our hearts to hear Your Word.

Thank You, God, for such selfless members who parked off-site so that others could park on the lot.

Thank You, Lord, for such faithful servants to lead in worship and bless our time with the gifts with which you've blessed them. Amen!

In His service,
Matt Hoehne
