

Love Your Neighbor: Taking the Great Commandment Seriously

Jesus once condensed all of the commandments down to just two. He said we are to love God with everything we have and to love our neighbors as ourselves. But here is a question for all of us to consider: What would happen if we did what Jesus said to do? What if we loved our actual neighbors as ourselves? What if we intentionally reached out to those God has placed all around us? In his book "The Art of Neighboring," Dave Runyon argues that if we say, "Everyone is my neighbor," it can become an excuse for avoiding the implications of following the Commandment. The term "neighbors" can become defined in very broad terms. They are the people in other parts of town, the people who are helped by the charities that receive our donations, the people whom the government helps with our taxes. The problem is, however, when we aim for everything, we hit nothing. If we insist we are neighbors with everybody, we end up being neighbors with nobody.

Take just a moment and imagine what it would be like if people in neighborhoods became more intentional about knowing one another. What would that be like? Now consider what happens when we don't get to know those who live next door. Odds are good that we will experience some of the following:

- ◆ Isolation: We will live lonelier lives. It is far too easy to leave our houses every morning with our head down. We grind it out at work, come back home, and hurry inside. We never get to know the people around us, and they never get to know us.
- ◆ Fear: We will be wary of our neighbors, and they will be wary of us. Whatever is unknown is scary. So when we don't know our neighbors and they don't know us, it's easy to imagine the worst.
- ◆ Misunderstanding: When we don't know our neighbors, it's easy to get the wrong idea about one another. Consider the neighbor whose grass is not mowed and house is in disrepair. It would be easy for resentment to grow in such a situation. But what if in getting to know your neighbor you discovered that it is a single lady living in the home who has been caring for her very ill mother? Would knowing that make a difference?

Our theme for 2018 is "Love Your Neighbor." Along with special service and mission opportunities, our principal goal is to have at least one hundred Our Father members commit to serve as intentional missionaries to their neighborhoods. Please save the date for a special "Family on Mission" training workshop May 4-5

Make no mistake, being a good neighbor is not always easy. And yet, whenever we center our lives around the Great Commandment and take very literally the idea of loving our neighbors, we become more of who we are supposed to be. As a result, our communities become more and more the places that God intended them to be. As G.K. Chesterton once said, "We choose our friends; we choose our enemies; but God chooses our next-door neighbor."

To God alone be the glory!
Pastor Abel

Happy Spring!

Spring has sprung! The children will learn all about St.

Patrick and leprechauns. We will have some leprechauns sneak through the classrooms, do a bit of mischief, and leave a trail of shiny shamrocks. Green is our favorite color this month.

We will celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday with lots of his stories, dressing wacky that day, and having pizza parties in the classrooms!

We always enjoy going up stairs to the sanctuary for Chapel Time and meeting the church staff! We have so much fun learning about Jesus and singing our songs. A huge thank you to the church staff for their creativity and time they spend with us!

Kids Are So Cute Corner

An older child noticed a little girl was upset. He went and wrapped his arms around her and said, "Don't be sad. Your teacher will be back soon. I will take you to my teacher for a hug!"

Year End Financials

2017 Year End Financial Highlights

Operating year ending December 31, 2017 has officially closed. General offerings were $20,475 or 1.0% higher than budgeted. This increase is attributed to membership and worship attendance growth, coupled through exceptional generosity of our members and guests.

Our Program and Designated Gifts income was lower than budgeted, primarily due to no India mission trip from Student Ministries and conversely lower expense affecting the Other Ministries category. Personnel, property and administration costs were below budget due to staffing transitions resulting from retirements and timing of refilling these vacancies, lower mortgage costs from loan re-amortization and overall general decreased operating costs. The excess income above expenses is being directed toward our contingency fund and building/property fund, $50,713 and $37,018 respectively in anticipation of future projects.

	Actual	Budget
General Offerings	$ 1,521,775	$ 1,501,300
Program Income & Designated Gifts	633,949	663,870

Preschool Sunday, February 25

Students from our preschool and their families gathered together with us in worship. We had a packed house and our parking lot and local side streets were stuffed with cars. Over one hundred toddlers sang "Jesus Loves Me, This I Know" at the top of their little lungs. Just an average "Preschool Sunday" at the tenfortyfive worship service; now in it's second year.

The preschool staff were given a special prayer and received a standing ovation from the congregation. The students sang two songs and then went downstairs for a special Sprouts lesson. After church, all the families had a cookie reception in the Fellowship Hall and the kids were presented with an Easter Story Cube. The preschool families experienced the fellowship of Our Father and the Gospel of grace.

The OFLC Preschool is a great blessing to many families and a place for us to share extraordinary life in Christ with our community. We are thankful to the teachers, leaders and other helpers for sharing God's love with so many.
